

MARCN

Moonlight Sonata - Official Tab Guide

Thank you for purchasing the official TAB for Moonlight Sonata arranged by Marcin. Moonlight Sonata is a very challenging arrangement and this style is particularly difficult to notate/tab, so while learning I recommend you closely follow the official video on Youtube.

This TAB is available in .PDF & .GPX (Guitar Pro) formats. I suggest learning this arrangement using mainly tablature notation in addition to using standard notation for rhythm.

If you wish to learn this arrangement using purely standard notation please find the transposed version of sheet music in the Transposed Notation folder.

Tab guide:

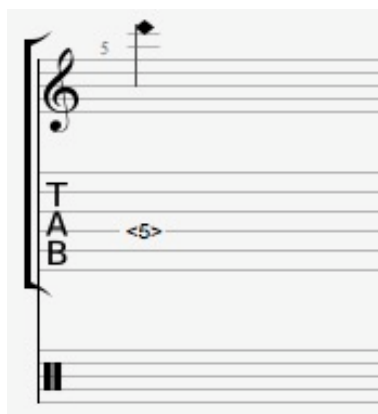

The tab is split into guitar (top) and percussion (bottom) sections.

Left hand hammer-on (tap).

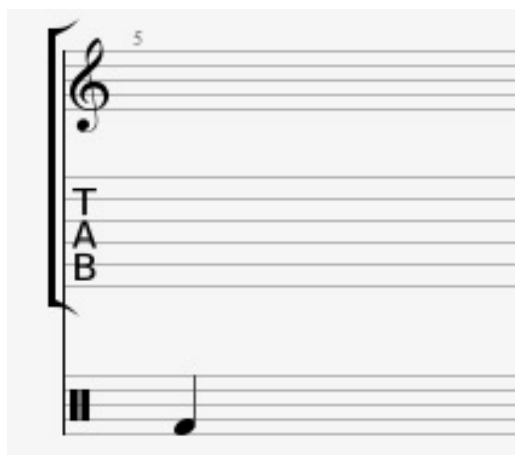

Right hand tap.

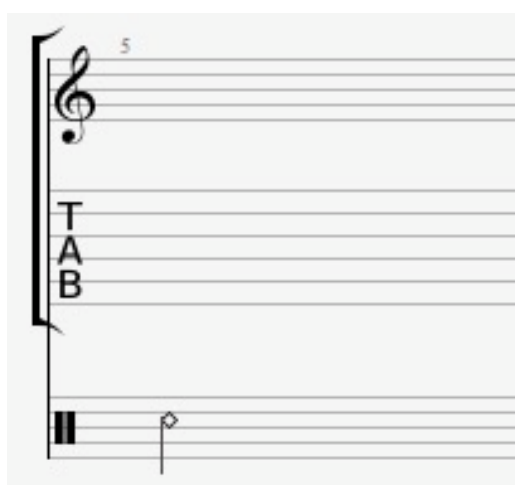

Natural harmonic.

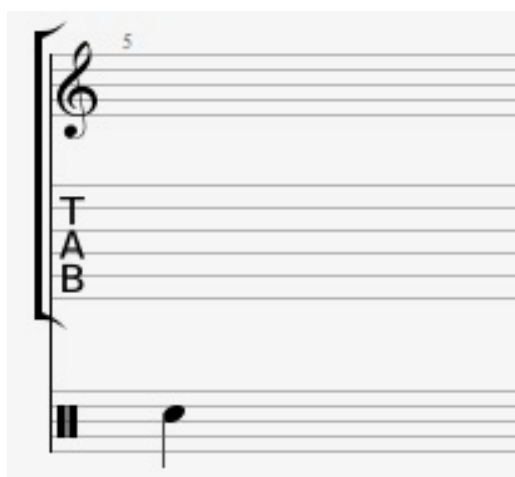

Artificial harmonic.

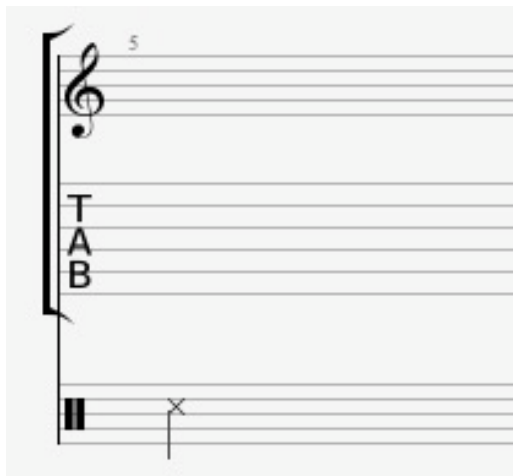

Kick drum. Hit top of guitar, above the soundhole or in the middle of guitar's body, with the bottom of your right wrist.

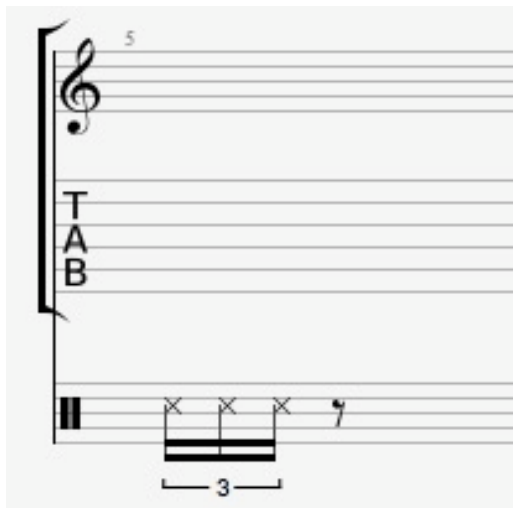

Strong snare. Hit side of the guitar or space around lower fretboard with your right palm.

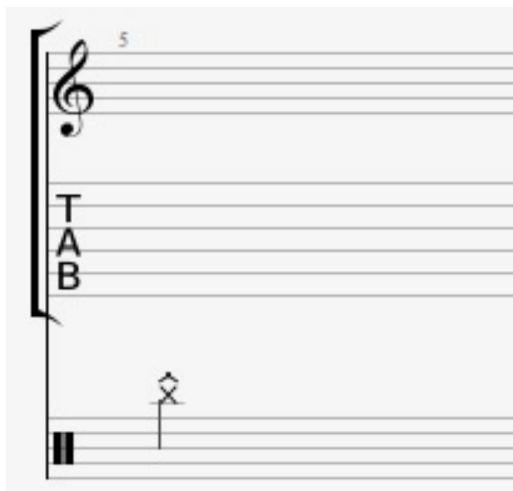

Light snare. Hit side of the guitar (often around the cutaway area) moderately lightly.

“Rimshot” snare. 1. Strike edge of the sound hole with nail.
2. “Shoot” your nail onto the top of guitar.

Percussive rasgueado. “Shoot” nails of fingers a,m,i in quick succession onto the top of guitar.

Scratch. Scratch the top of guitar, or scratchpad (if available).

Bongo hits. Hit top of guitar with right thumb or fingertips
(various places on the guitars body).